CLUB NOTES

Well done to the Setanta contingent who represented their respective schools in the Carlow Urban Schools finals in Eire Og on Tuesday June 20th. The following schools had Setanta players: Bennekerry NS, Tinryland NS, Scoil Mhuire Gan Smal NS, Askea Boys and Girls NS, Bishop Foley NS. Also represented were St Fiachs NS and Tullow.

Well done to Katie Garry Murphy the recipient of a pen from St Leo's for camogie player of the year 2016/17. Also, congratulations to Sorcha Barcoe-Keogh honored with an ornate plate by the Gaelscolaiste for camogie player of the year 2016/17.

Well done to Pat Ahern, Adrian Corcoran and Leo McGough and especially the ladies who represented Setanta as we fielded our first ever adult camogie team on Mon 19th June as we hosted Mount Leinster Rangers in the Carlow Adult 12-a-side league. A truly remarkable occasion.

GAA CHAMPIONSHIP HURLING MATCHES

Best wishes to Setanta's Adrian Corcoran and the Carlow Senior Hurling team on Sunday against Laois in the GAA Hurling All-Ireland Senior Championship preliminary round match. The match will throw-in at 3.30pm in Portlaoise and the winners will join Waterford, Limerick and Tipperary in Pot 2 for the Live Qualifier draw on Monday morning (live on RTE Radio 1) after the 8:00am News.

KELLOGG'S CUL CAMPS
